General Information

Description

This course provides the musician with the appropriate methods, techniques, strategies, and skills for being a successful classically trained musician. The course will focus on the elements needed to be a multifaceted and proficient instrumentalist. The course structure will consist of but not limited to the following: lectures, demonstrations, ear training, elements of music theory, sight reading/singing, and rhythm reading.

Performance Standards/Objective:

Expectations and Goals

- Students are to be present and on time for each class.
- Cell phone usage is not allowed during class. Phones must be off or on silent. Phones must be put away at all times.
- No food or drink in the band room. Water is allowed.
- This is a performance based course. Each student is required to rent or own their instrument and materials. Rental information is available from the director. Please see “Course Materials” for more information.
- Students will be assigned a Charms account. Each student is required to update and keep up to date with all information related to this account. Parents are also encouraged to work on this with their child as well.
- All fall and spring ensemble rehearsal attendance is mandatory. NMHS Fine Arts policy states that if a student misses a dress rehearsal for any reason, he/she will not be able to perform. Students will be given rehearsal and performance dates well in advance. All dates are posted on Charms.
- Skill checks (assessments) will be scheduled in charms. This can include in class or online recorded assessments. Students will receive a minimum two-week notification on the information to be assessed. These checks will monitor the musical growth of the students.
- Private lessons will help a student excel while working independently with a professional musician. The director can assist students in finding an instructor for their instrument. Starting in September, students will receive a recommendation to seek private instruction if they are not meeting the rigor of the class.
- Students will be given two class meetings to complete any missed in-class assignments due to an excused absence. This will not apply to assigned skill checks or performances. Please use the Charms calendar to plan around the performance schedule. Skill checks must be completed by the assigned date.
- Instruments are expected to be maintained at all time. Students will incur all cost in personal instrument repair that the director cannot fix. Students are negligent or mishandle school assigned equipment will be responsible for repair cost.

- Cultural Awareness: All students of the instrumental must also be students of the arts in general. Students are required to go see a total of five shows through the course of the year. The shows can be from any area of the five areas of the fine arts. Ex.: vocal music, instrumental music, theater, dance, and art. Students must submit a program or a ticket along with a written one-page critique within five days of the show date. (There will be many shows that students can choose from.) Shows must be of high school, collegiate, or professional level.
